

Questions for the Panel

- 1. Assuming current indications for large θ_{13} hold up, what will be the likely state of knowledge in 2020, given the current program of running and funded experiments?
- 2. What are possibilities for the next 10 years with current facilities, and how can we optimize the program?